Old Santa's Christmas List

By De LYSLE FERREE CASS

The reindeer are harnessed and ready. For their Christmas eve drive through the skies. They whinny and stamp their hoofs jingle. And old Santa Claus' sleigh is piled high. With an abundance of toys, books and goodies. For all good little boys and girls. Santa will fill up the stockings while the clock is tick-tocking. And the snow flakes drift down in whirr.

He'll slide down the chimney as usual. His jolly, red-faced, full of glee. He's a jolly, good fellow, and each one of you in the picture, he's looking to see.

What little ones have done their parents. Which youngsters have done as they ought.

If you've been good and done as you should, our Santa'll bring you lots.

He's looking like the President over there, and scrutinizing the naughty ones out.

If you've had mischievous moments. Today, he'd never need doubt.

That Santa would get up no good.

And if Santa'll bring you lots.

Next, he's looking like the President over there, and scrutinizing the naughty ones out.

If you've had mischievous moments.

Today, he'd never need doubt.

That Santa would get up no good.

And if Santa'll bring you lots.
